TIP OF THE MONTH

Exercise your artist's liberty and play with the colors you use in your rugs. Does a pumpkin have to be orange? No. Does Santa always wear a red coat? No. Unexpected colors can make your rug more fun and interesting. Take a look at this featured rug and see what I mean.

FEATURED RUG

Title: The Purple Harvest
Artist: Tammy Godwin
Design by: Tammy Godwin
Size: 30" X 48"
Cut: #8
Hooked with: wool on linen

Some of you will know that Tammy Godwin is one of our rug designers and we have featured her Asbury Park Topiary Garden rug in the April, 2005, issue of The Hook Up. Once again Tammy has shown her artistry in the execution of this wonderful rug that celebrates the season. While the pumpkins are shocking shades of purples – she has used perfect complimentary background oranges to set them off. The chevron hit-and-miss border adds interest and is reminiscent of 19th century folk rugs. The mother and child blackbirds seem to be choosing their jack-o-lanterns for Halloween. What a treat for the eyes.

We are pleased to announce that this rug is for sale at Saratoga Accessories & Design which is owned by Susan Vervilles. The shop is located at 9444 Norton Commons Blvd. in Prospect, Kentucky. Finally area decorators and galleries are showing and selling some of the great rugs that are being made here locally. If you are interested in finding out more about this or other rugs that Tammy has for sale, call Saratoga Accessories and Designs at 502-418-0195.

Congratulations Tammy. We love your work!
